

Psychiatrist Fellow

KIND OF WORK

Psychiatry Fellow

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERICS/REQUIREMENTS

One year training position in collaboration with the University of Minnesota and other affiliate sites.

NATURE AND PURPOSE

One year full-time program that is focused on developing the skills, knowledge and attitudes leading to proficiency in the following domains:

- Provision of Psychiatric expertise in legal matters
- Systems issues involved in mental health care delivery
- Legal regulation of psychiatric practices

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Clinical evaluation, record review and completion of psychiatric reports on a myriad of assigned cases pertaining to civil, criminal and administrative law.

Testify in courts about professional opinions rendered in psychiatric reports.

Provide direct psychiatric care to mentally ill individuals.

Participate in clinical team meetings, treatment decisions and clinical activities related to direct patient care.

Participate in requisite didactic curriculum essential to training in forensic psychiatry; timely submission of research/academic projects assigned.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

Knowledge of the principles of human growth and development.

Ability to assess and interpret data reflective of the client's status.

Ability to follow direction, to take criticism, to get along with co-workers and supervisors

LICENSURE REQUIRED

Licensure as a physician in the State of MN